

PROCLAMATION
INTERGENERATIONAL DAY CANADA
JUNE 1/2014

- WHEREAS: Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is meant to raise awareness about the simplicity and power of intergenerational connections; and
- WHEREAS: Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is a day to focus on the profound positive influence intergenerational connecting has in creating healthy, all-age friendly communities; and
- WHEREAS: Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is a day to celebrate all of the good things presently taking place between generations in local community; and
- WHEREAS: Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, does not require funding, excessive time or extensive planning; and
- WHEREAS: Intergenerational day Canada, June 1st, will have its greatest strength as a reminder, an invitation for every individual to take one small respectful step to bridge generations within his or her local community. (How much effort and time does it take to smile at someone from a different generation...with such huge sustainable return?)

NOW THEREFORE I, John Ruttan, Mayor of the City of Nanaimo, do hereby proclaim June 1, 2014, as in the City of Nanaimo.

John Ruttan
MAYOR

DATED THIS 28TH DAY OF JANUARY, 2014.
